Bucaramanga Junior International 2026

BWF Junior Future Series

September 01 to September 06, 2026 Coliseo
Bicentenario – Alejandro Galviz

Dear Member Associations,

It is with great enthusiasm and pride that we warmly welcome you to the Bucaramanga Junior International 2026, an event that will bring together young badminton talents from different countries in the beautiful city of Bucaramanga, Colombia.

Our city, recognized for its warmth, hospitality, and sporting spirit, is honored to host athletes, coaches, officials, and families who are part of this great celebration of sport and international unity. We firmly believe that badminton goes beyond competition, becoming a platform to strengthen friendships among nations, inspire new generations, and promote values such as respect, discipline, and fair play.

Throughout these days, participants will not only experience exciting high-level matches, but also enjoy the culture of Santander, its gastronomy, landscapes, and the unique energy of our people. In addition, this event will also feature competitive opportunities across multiple categories, encouraging the development and participation of athletes of different ages and levels in a subtle and inclusive environment.

The Bucaramanga Junior International 2026 will be an unforgettable experience for the entire badminton community, creating new friendships, strengthening sporting bonds, and continuing to promote the growth of our sport across the region and the continent.

We extend our sincere gratitude to all member associations, federations, coaches, athletes, officials, volunteers, and sponsors who make this important event possible. Together, we will celebrate sporting excellence, teamwork, and the future of international badminton.

Welcome to Bucaramanga, Colombia!

Manuel Eduardo Vargas
Director de Campeonato
