

On behalf of the Bolivian Badminton Federation, I have the honor of addressing you to greet you cordially and, at the same time, to officially announce the holding of the II International Badminton Tournament, to be held in the city of Sucre, Capital of Bolivia. Following the success achieved in our first edition, the Federation has confirmed Sucre as the official venue, not only for its invaluable historical and cultural wealth, but also for its proven logistical capacity and the commitment of its fans. This event aims to consolidate Bolivia in the international circuit, promoting competitive exchange among high-performance athletes from various countries in the region and the world. As the governing body of national badminton, our goal is to provide excellent organization that meets the international standards of the BWF (Badminton World Federation), guaranteeing an optimal setting for athletes and an unforgettable experience for spectators.

We are convinced that sport is a fundamental pillar for the integration of peoples and development. Therefore, we extend our invitation for you to be part of this sporting milestone, whose significance will put Sucre and Bolivia on the world badminton map. Without further ado, wishing the tournament to be successful, I bid you farewell with the highest regards.

Sincerely,

Eng. Cindy Avendaño Montes
PRESIDENT OF THE BOLIVIAN BADMINTON FEDERATION

— OFFICIAL PROSPECTUS —

Invitation to

II INTERNACIONAL BADMINTON SUCRE CAPITAL DE BOLIVIA 2026

BWF Grade 3 Tournament (Future Series)

August 11 to 15, 2026

Max Toledo Badminton Coliseum Sucre, Bolivia

Dear Member Associations,

Welcome to the Cradle of Freedom and Bolivian Badminton!

Dear delegations, athletes, coaches, and officials of the Sister Federations:

With hearts full of pride and open arms, the city of Sucre, Constitutional Capital of Bolivia, gives you the warmest welcome to the II International Badminton Tournament.

Our "White City" is not only the place where the homeland was born, but today it is also established as the epicenter of Bolivian badminton. Welcoming you to this historic ground is a testament to the growth of our sport and the unbreakable bond that unites our nations through fair play and sporting excellence.

We will witness the talent, discipline, and agility of the region's best performers in action. Beyond the courts, this event is an opportunity to strengthen the ties between our federations; Culture and Tradition: We invite every visitor to enjoy our colonial architecture and our temperate climate and the warmth of our people. We deeply appreciate your effort to be here and to contribute to the prestige of this competition. We are convinced that every rally and every point contested in Sucre will be engraved in the history of our sport.

Sucre, Bolivia Official Host of the II International Badminton Tournament.
