1. Transportation form

This form applies only to participants and delegation members who have confirmed their accommodation through Badminton Peru at the official hotel designated for the Peru International Series 2026 (Delfines Hotel & Convention Center).

Official airport transportation will be provided exclusively to delegations staying at the official hotel and whose accommodation reservation has been coordinated through Badminton Peru.

Participants who arrange their accommodation independently, through external platforms, travel agencies, or non-official hotels, will not be eligible to receive official transportation services from/to the airport.

All delegation members requesting airport transportation must complete this form with accurate arrival and departure information, including flight number, date, time, and selected official hotel.

The information submitted will be used for transportation planning and logistics coordination. Incomplete, incorrect, or late submissions may affect the availability of the official transportation service.
